CHAIRMAN'S ROUND UP

Well, another year draws to a close we can reflect on a busy and successful year for the Parish Council.

The events held throughout the year have been well attended and received by everyone so thanks to you all for your support. Community engagement has been one of my many areas of focus this year, working with both of the schools in our village who continue to support the events, so again a big thank you to you all. I know from my time in the schools talking to staff and the young people how much satisfaction and enjoyment they get from it as well.

Unfortunately, as mentioned in this issue, we are experiencing an increased level of vandalism in the park with both the Village Hall, the bowling green and the new Scouts hut targeted on a number of occasions. Such a shame when so much good is being done in the village by so many people. These incidents have been reported to the police, and hopefully these episodes will come to an end. We have these wonderful facilities in our village so please don't let a minority spoil it for the majority.

It leaves me, on a more cheerful and seasonal note to wish everyone of you, and your families a very Merry Christmas and a happy and healthy new year.

We will see you all in 2026!!!

HEALING AND DISTRICT GARDEN CLUB

Firstly, we must say a huge thank you to all the talented folk who made the poppies for second fall of poppies which adorned the Cenotaph for Remembrance Sunday and the 11th. A special thank you to Ian Jones for all his help in once again hanging the 2 falls of poppies, it would not happen without his help.

All our members and guests once again enjoyed the amazing photography of Mike Pickwell at our November meeting together with the lovely descriptions of the slides. He is always a most popular speaker with the members.

We have changed the format of our meeting for December, yes we will still have the quiz but instead of a fish and chip supper we are having a Festive Buffet.

We will need names for this evening, for catering purposes, so if you could call Sue (01472507977) if you wish to join us on the 2nd. Most members have already put their names on the list but call if you cannot remember! Do bring your own drinks, alcohol is allowed at the Village Hall.

We will have our usual New Year Social on January 6th, just bring a silly or serious game and some food, Christmas leftovers are most welcome. Bring your own drinks.

In closing may we wish you all a Peaceful Christmas and all good wishes for 2026.

That's what Advent feels like for me; not a call to make everything beautiful, but to make space by carving a rough track through the overgrowth. To stop waiting for the perfect conditions before I invite God in.

Because that's the point: God doesn't wait for order. He comes into the wild. Into the chaos, the exhaustion, the half-hearted prayers and the untamed corners of my heart. So, this Advent, I'm not trying to impress him with an immaculate garden. I'm just trying to give him a way in.

The wilderness will probably still be wild. But if God walks through it, maybe it will start to grow into something new again.

Every blessing,
Andrew Gadd

View from the Pew

- Clearing A Way For God

"A voice of one calling: 'In the wilderness, prepare the way for the Lord; make straight in the desert a highway for our God.'" (Isaiah 40 vs 3)

When I read those words, they caught me off guard. I found myself wondering ... is my heart now a wilderness?

A wilderness isn't necessarily a desert. It's a place that's become wild, overgrown and unmanaged. And if I'm honest, that feels uncomfortably close to home.

There was a time when my inner life felt tended. I kept rhythms of prayer, reflection and rest. I would find quiet spaces where I could listen and breathe again. But lately, the weeds of distraction have taken over. The paths I once walked with ease have become blurred. I've let the boundaries go soft.

The strange thing is, in nature, a return to wildness can be good; it brings new life, biodiversity, balance. But there isn't really an equivalent in the human soul. My heart doesn't thrive on neglect. When I stop tending it, it doesn't get richer – it gets tangled. Prayer becomes harder. Gratitude shrinks. Joy feels out of reach.

So, when Isaiah calls out, "Prepare the way for the Lord," it feels less like a poetic metaphor and more like a lifeline. Don't tidy everything up. Don't pretend the wilderness isn't there. Just clear a path. Make a way for God to enter, even through the mess.

Bag It and Bin it!!

We are still getting complaints about dog fouling in and around the village—especially on parks etc. Please bag up your dog mess and either put it in a nearby bin if there is one, or take it home and put it in your wheelie bin. You don't need to use a specialist dog bin—just any litter bin will do.

Thank you.

Vandalism at Poplar Road Park, Healing

Unfortunately, the Village is having quite a lot of vandalism at Poplar Park, with classes and hirings disrupted by youngsters and also vandalism is being experienced with youngsters breaking into the bowling green area, damaging property and also damaging the new Scout Hut.

We would remind people that there is CCTV at the park and we will be passing information to the local policing team.

It is such a shame when a small group of youngsters is spoiling the hard work which has been put in at the park to provide facilities for everyone.

Please make sure you know where your youngsters are going to at night and we would ask everyone to respect the park and all the facilities that are on offer.
