CHAIRMAN'S ROUND UP

When you receive this issue of the Village News we will have finished off an extremely successful summer of events at the Village Hall and Poplar Park.

It started with the Proms in the Park in July, and we have followed that with 4 very successful Children's Clubs. All of the events were well supported by residents and their families, and it was nice to see everyone getting together and enjoying themselves. We are building a great community spirit in Healing, and this is thanks to everyone who supports the Parish Council by showing up to these events, so a massive thank you to you all.

As summer fades away into Autumn we still have a number of events going ahead, so keep an eye on Social media and the Village News for further information. We are already thinking of next year and what types of events we could have, so if anyone has any ideas please contact us and share your ideas.

I am pleased to say that another resident was co-opted onto the Parish Council at the last meeting, and we are hopeful of another resident looking to be co-opted at the September meeting also. These additions to the Parish Council will be very positive giving much needed support to a very busy Council.

We still have a couple of vacancies, so please come along to the meetings and see for yourselves what we are doing, and perhaps join and get involved.

Cllr. Paul Fieldgate

Fundraising Update on Harley

Firstly a big thank you to everyone who has donated or done some fundraising for our dedicated nominee this year—Harley.

We initially started fundraising to get some swimming lessons for this young man and we are pleased to advise that Harley has now started his lessons and we have booked starter 4-lesson set and we will be booking more if these go well.

Thank you—we are keeping this fundraising open until the end of this year.

HEALING AND DISTRICT GARDEN CLUB

For our August Garden Club meeting we organised a most informal gardeners question time during which we covered a huge amount of members queries of which were concerns regarding insect infested lawns, problems with moles, there were lots of answers to that one, from clocks to toy windmills !and among others was a question how to tell when pears are ready to be picked.

On Sunday 10th members travelled by coach to RHS Bridgewater.

As the Garden Club are members of the RHS we are able, each year, to visit free, one of their gardens .

We have visited Bridgewater previously and once again it did not disappoint, the trial beds are worthy of particular mention. We plan to visit again late Spring/early Summer of 2026. Watch the Healing News for further details as we had to disappoint several people as the coach was filled quite quickly.

September is the month of our late Summer Show and schedules are available on the club web site or from 01472887966.

Non members are always welcome at our meetings,

We meet on the 1st Tuesday of each month @7.30 at the Village Hall, Poplar Rd Healing.

POLICE REPORT

Wolds Ward Healing Update

Crime

There were forty three reported crimes across the Wolds Ward during July. The following offences were reported in Healing.

Sometime between 19th July and 2nd August, padlocks were removed from a garage at an address on Poplar Road. No entry was gained.

Between 5th & 7th July a site office on Wells Road was broken into. Despite objects being moved around, nothing was stolen.

Between 18th & 21st July, entry was made to metal containers on a building site on Clover Lane. An attempt was made to steal diesel; however, it appears that the intruders were disturbed as all items brought on site by them was left at the scene.

A building on Marsh Lane that had previously been subject to arson was again set alight on 2nd July,

Other crimes include:

Four reports of harassment.

Three further reports relating to a neighbour dispute.

There was one report of ASB, in relation to the same neighbour dispute as mentioned above.

Your local Neighbourhood Policing Team appreciates the importance of being in the right place, at the right time, for the right reasons to reassure the public, improve public confidence and reduce crime and anti-social behaviour in the area in which we all live and work.

We encourage all residents to call and report any issues where they live so that we can deal with any issues and step up our patrols in the area. The number to call for non-emergency issues is 101

Finding A Foothold

Ever felt like life is closing in on you? The pressures mount: family worries, health concerns, money problems, relationship tensions - and you wonder how you're going to keep your head above water. You're not the first to feel that way, and you certainly won't be the last. People have been wrestling with these same struggles for thousands of years.

That's why I love the Book of Psalms in the Old Testament. It's a remarkable collection of ancient poetry - raw, honest, and deeply human. I don't mean poetry in the style of William Wordsworth or Pam Ayres. These are prayers and cries of the heart, written in a different time and language, with much of their rhythm and lyrical beauty inevitably lost in translation. Yet they still carry a timeless power, speaking to the human condition in every age.

Listen to these words from Psalm 69: "Save me, O God, for the waters have come up to my neck. I sink in the miry depths, where there is no foothold. I have come into the deep waters; the floods engulf me. I am worn out calling for help; my throat is parched."

That image of "no foothold" is painfully familiar to many of us. Life's currents are strong, and it can feel like we're being swept away.

Faith is a foothold. Faith in God - whether strong and certain or shaky and unsure - gives us something solid to stand on. It offers hope when we're weary and a glimmer of light when all seems dark.

Psalm 40 puts it beautifully: "I waited patiently for the Lord; he turned to me and heard my cry. He lifted me out of the slimy pit, out of the mud and mire; he set my feet on a rock and gave me a firm place to stand. He put a new song in my mouth, a hymn of praise to our God."

May you find that foothold today, secure on the rock, with a new song of praise on your lips.

Every blessing,
Andrew Gadd

Village Litter Picking

The Parish Council does employ two job-share litter pickers in the village, and one of them was present at our Summer Event to help tidy up afterwards.

If you see an area which needs some litter picking attention, then do let us know in the office and we can send one of the team to have a look.

The two litter pickers are dedicated solely to Healing Village.
